Join us online for a workshop focused on learning valuable information about Ontario and the Guelph community! Topics will include: Getting to Know Canada and Ontario, Living in Your New Community, Education and Training, Working and Business, Money and Personal Finances, and People and the Environment. Topics will be chosen by the participants. We have special guest speakers to cover topics and programs available through the City of Guelph.

Everyone is welcome, including visitors to Canada! This workshop will be delivered in Tigrinya. Interpretation support is available.
