ISGW is excited to announce our new Tigrinya-speaking, Employment and Volunteer Coordinator, Semhar Fsehatsion!

To share this great news, and give everyone the chance to meet Semhar, we're inviting our clients and the community to an open house at ISGW.

We will have individually packed refreshments for everyone.

See you there!

HELLO! I'm Semhar, the new Employment and Volunteer Coordinator at Immigrant Services.

I am available to support clients in their job search, with resume writing or critiquing, by connecting them to prospective employers and providing valuable information for career growth. I can also help clients identify their full potential, by connecting them to the community through our volunteer placement program.

Through the Canada Connections program, I am able to connect clients with volunteers for English practise and one-on-one support during their settlement journey .

I am originally from Eritrea and lived in Uganda before moving to Canada in 2018. Since moving to Canada I have worked as an interpreter and translator. I am fluent in English and Tigrinya.

As a former client, I understand the value of the programs and services at Immigrant Services Guelph-Wellington. Being a part of the agency is very rewarding personally and professionally.

I'm looking forward to meeting everyone!
