

Image by rawpixel.com

Human trafficking is happening in communities across Canada, but you have the power to help stop it.

Learn, Recognize, Share – Save Lives!

Join SWIS workers and youth leaders as well as guest speakers from local organizations for a series of five workshops to learn about human trafficking, prevention and supports.

February 2: Jaseth from Women in Crisis on the process of human trafficking.

February 9: Director of the Sexual Assault Centre, Guelph General Hospital on how to provide support to victims of human trafficking and how the hospital supports its victims.

February 16: speaker to be confirmed

February 23: Sarah Bowers-Peter, Program Coordinator, Crime Stoppers on the process of reporting crime through Crime Stoppers Guelph-Wellington

March 2: Melanie Dewar, Human Trafficking Officer, Guelph Police Service on cybersecurity and how to remain safe on the internet.

Participation is open to high school students. Workshops will take place:

Thursdays, 4:30 pm – 5:30 pm

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

Learning how to recognize the signs of trafficking and sharing your knowledge with others can save lives.

For more information or help to register, contact Hania
hkhan@is-gw.ca or WhatsApp/Call: 226-821-4454

This project was funded by a grant from The Guelph Community Foundation.

www.is-gw.ca

104 Dawson Road, Unit 102, Guelph, ON N1H 1A6
T: 519-836-2222 F: 519-837-2884 Bus route #11