Join us over 3 sessions for an amazing opportunity to learn valuable information about Ontario and the Guelph community! We will have special guest speakers joining us. Topics will include: Getting to Know Canada and Ontario, Living in Your New Community, Education and Training, Working and Business, Money and Personal Finances and People and the Environment.

These sessions will take place in person at ISGW and will be presented in Tigrinya.

This workshop is for women who speak Tigrinya. Everyone is welcome, including visitors to Canada!

Refreshments will be provided for in-person participants.

Those who attend all 3 sessions will receive a certificate of completion.
