VIRTUAL WORKSHOP (online, using Zoom)

Bridging Programs for Internationally-Trained Immigrants

A Bridging Program is designed to help internationally-trained immigrants (ITIs) get employment in the field in which they were trained or in a related field without duplicating their existing skills and education.

Topics to be discussed in this session include:

- A brief overview of ACCES programs and services.
- What is a bridging program?
- Bridging programs offered at ACCES Employment
- Bridging program components and the benefits of attending a bridging program
- Eligibility criteria and enrollment process
- Bridging program participant commitment
